

Books 501-600

591	581	571	561	551	541	531	521	511	501
592	582	572	562	552	542	532	522	512	502
593	583	573	563	553	543	533	523	513	503
594	584	574	564	554	544	534	524	514	504
595	585	575	565	555	545	535	525	515	505
596	586	576	566	556	546	536	526	516	506
597	587	577	567	557	547	537	527	517	507
598	588	578	568	558	548	538	528	518	508
599	589	579	569	559	549	539	529	519	509
600	590	580	570	560	550	540	530	520	510

1,000 Books
Before Kindergarten

Name: _____

Matching Games

Games that develop matching skills also enhance literacy skills as reading involves matching shapes, letters, and words. Go Fish develops number and symbol matching skills while other games such as lower case and upper case letter matching cards directly contribute to building a relationship between letters. The drive to win a matching competition often motivates children to learn quickly to increase their skills and recall speed.